

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
Washington, D. C.

MINUTES OF A REGULAR MEETING
OF THE FACULTY SENATE HELD ON
JANUARY 17, 1986, IN LISNER HALL
Room 603

- 1 The meeting was called to order by Vice President French at 2:14 p.m.

Present: Vice President French, Registrar Grimm, Parliamentarian Schechter, Altsnuler, Birnbaum, Castleberry, Della Torre, Eldridge, Frey, Greene, Griffith, Hill, Levy, Morgan, Pierpont, D. Robinson, Schiff, Schiller, Smith, Tolchin, and Ziolkowski

Absent: President Elliott, Barron, Choh, Claeysens, East, Fox, Kelly, Kenney, Parrish, Liebowitz, Loeser, Lovett, Rashid, L. Robinson, Singpurwalla, Solomon, and Wallace

- 2 The minutes of the regular meeting of December 13, 1985, were approved as distributed.

Vice President French called upon Professor Eldridge, Chair of the Appointment, Salary and Promotion Policies Committee, who moved a suspension of the rules in order to give Vice President Lange an opportunity to speak about the pending bill before the United States Senate that would adversely affect the TIAA/CREF Retirement Plan. No objections were made to suspending the rules and Vice President Lange was given the privilege of the floor.

Dr. Lange explained that the Tax Reform Act of 1985 passed by the House of Representatives on December 17, 1985, and currently under consideration by the United States Senate for action in early spring, contains provisions that would have the following major impacts upon the TIAA/CREF retirement plan: (1) it would withdraw the tax exemption accorded to TIAA/CREF for over 65 years, resulting in a reduction in retirement income, effective January 1, 1988, and restructuring TIAA-CREF to qualify for continued tax-exemption would be costly and could reduce considerably the portability features of the TIAA/CREF contract; (2) it would impose unnecessary and costly administrative burdens on educational institutions by requiring them to conform to certain pension plan rules that are applicable to commercial and industrial firms; (3) it would reduce the

- 2 maximum allowable salary reduction from $30,000 to $7,000, and an individual's IRA would be reduced by one dollar for each dollar the individual contributes by salary reduction, thereby limiting the maximum combined IRA and salary reduction contribution to $2,000.00; and (4) it would restrict cash withdrawals from SRA's and would impose a 15% additional penalty tax if the SRA were withdrawn before 59-1/2 years of age, except for death or disability. Vice President Lange noted that President Elliott has written to the Senate Finance Committee, taking exception to these proposals on behalf of the University and its Retirement Plan; in addition, President Elliott and Professor Griffith were jointly sending a memorandum to all participants in TIAA/CREF, urging faculty and staff to consider the issues as outlined in TIAA/CREF's memorandum dated December 20th and, if concerned, to write to their U.S. Senators as soon as possible.
- 3 On behalf of the Joint Committee of Faculty and Students, Professor Schiff, Co-chair, moved the adoption of Resolution 84/14, "A Resolution to Amend the University Policy on Academic Dishonesty," and the motion was seconded. Because of the numerous amendments to be offered, the Parliamentarian suggested that each amendment be considered separately for discussion and action. Amendments were moved respectively by Professors Schiff, Levy, Greene, Griffith, Eldridge, Schiller, Della Torre, Castleberry, D. Robinson, and Morgan. Participating in the discussions of the amendments were Deans Birnbaum, Caress, Cordes, Associate Provost Phelps, Vice President French, Professors Tolchin, Pierpont, Smith, Ziolkowski, Hill, Banzhaf, and Mr. Gubernick, President of GWUSA. Upon completion of the amending process, the Chair advised that the entire document was now open to further discussion and amendment, if any. The question was called on the original motion, as amended, and Resolution 84/14, as amended, was adopted. (Resolution 84/14, as amended, is attached; incorporation of the amendments in the text of the Policy on Academic Dishonesty is indicated by underlining.)
- 4 (a) On behalf of the Committee on Administrative Matters as They Affect the Faculty, Associate Professor Lake, Acting Chair, moved the adoption of Resolution 85/7, "A Resolution on a Proposed New University Smoking Policy," and the motion was seconded. Parliamentarian Schechter suggested that the two proposed amendments to the policy be taken up separately for action, after which a vote could then be taken on the policy in its entirety.

The Chair called for discussion on the proposed amendment to Section III. Exceptions, Paragraph C. Residence Halls. The privilege of the floor was given to Mr. Richard Greene, Resident Director of Calhoun Hall. Mr. Greene, speaking at the request of Ms. Webster, said that he was opposed to this amendment because it would not permit any flexibility in mediating conflicts between smoking and non-smoking students. He pointed out that the residence halls are the students' "homes" and the Housing Office is very sensitive to the smoking issue, and tries to work out the best possible arrangement for smokers and non-smokers. However, he said, when a non-smoker and smoker agree to share a room, often times some difficulty may arise later on that has nothing to do with "health" problems. However, the non-smoker may decide to invoke this right, in order to manipulate the situation in his or her favor. Mr. Greene pointed out that the University could not afford to lose students, and he hoped that the Senate would oppose this amendment and approve the original policy, which provides the necessary flexibility. Professor Frey spoke in support of the amendment, suggesting that perhaps the University could segregate smokers and non-smokers by having non-smoking dormitories and smoking dormitories. Professor Morgan spoke in favor of the proposed new smoking policy, but against the amendment because he did not think the Senate should be in the business of recommending policy for the residence halls. Further discussion followed by Professor Griffith, Dr. Phelps, and Mr. Greene. Professor D. Robinson proposed that, in line 4 of the amendment, the word "present" be inserted after the word "residents" so that it would read: "if all room residents present agree." There was no second to the proposal. Further discussion followed by Professors Levy, Morgan, Griffith, Banzhaf and Mr. Greene. The question was called on the amendment to Section III. Exceptions, Paragraph C. Residence Halls, and the amendment was carried by a vote of 9-7.

The Chair called for discussion on the proposed amendment to Section V. Signs. Professor Lake said the Committee thought that selection of smoking areas by the Physical Plant Department should be coordinated with all department heads concerned because there may be particular problems in some departments that need to be brought to the attention of the Physical Plant Department. Professor Griffith asked if the intent of the language, "in

- 4 coordination with all department heads concerned," simply meant that department heads would be advised in advance of selection of smoking areas in order to allow department heads to respond before such areas were officially designated. Professor Lake responded that that was the Committee's intent. Professor Greene voiced his concern about implementation and enforcement of those areas designated for smokers because the language would imply that hallways could be off-limit, and since there were not many lounges on campus, the question arises as to where smokers would be permitted to smoke, especially if the weather was inclement. The question was called on the amendment to Section V. Signs, and the amendment was passed.

The Chair advised that the entire document was now open to further discussion and amendment. Professor Hill remarked that he thought the faculty should support the Administration's policy even though the question had been correctly raised about faculty involvement in recommending policy for residence halls. He was particularly concerned, however, that this resolution might not be conducive to stability or collegiality on campus, and he suggested that the resolution be carried by a vote of 5 or so with some 10 abstentions. The question was called on the original motion, and Resolution 85/7 was passed. (Resolution 85/7 with accompanying Proposed University Smoking Policy is attached.)

Because of the lateness of the hour, Professor Griffith moved a suspension of the rules for the purpose of taking up Item 4(d) A Resolution to Establish a Special Committee on Conflict of Interest Policy (85/10) as the next item of business in order to elect the Special Committee if the resolution is passed. No objection was made, and the Senate proceeded to Item 4(d).

On behalf of the Executive Committee, Professor Griffith moved the adoption of Resolution 85/10, "A Resolution to Establish a Special Committee on Conflict of Interest Policy," and the motion was seconded. Professor Griffith said that the Executive Committee had been working very hard to try to clarify the charge to the Special Committee and also to find a slate of nominees who were willing to serve on the Committee. Because of the amount of work involved in this study, the Executive Committee did not impose a specific timetable for its completion, nor specify the size of the membership in the event the committee wished to add additional members at a later date. The question was called, and Resolution 85/10 was adopted. (Resolution 85/10 is attached.)

Professor Griffith then asked Professor Hill if he would be willing to defer Resolution 85/8, "A Resolution to Amend Article X and Procedures for Implementation of Article X, Paragraph E, of The Faculty Code," and Resolution 85/9, "A Resolution to Amend Article III of the Faculty Code," under Items 4(b) and (c), respectively, to the February 14, 1986, Senate meeting. Professor Hill, Chair, PEAFC Committee, agreed, and the motion to defer was accepted.

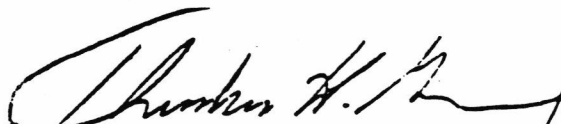

5 No resolutions were introduced under Introduction of Resolutions.

6 (a) On behalf of the Executive Committee, Professor Griffith moved the nomination of the following faculty members for election to the Special Committee on Conflict of Interest Policy: Co-Chairs: John E. Ziolkowski, Associate Professor of Classics, (Columbian College) and Nozer D. Singpurwalla, Professor of Operations Research and of Statistics, (SEAS); Members: Peter P. Hill, Professor of History (Columbian College); Michael J. Jackson, Professor of Physiology, (Medical Center); Daniel R. Kane, Assistant Professor of Business Administration, (SGBA); Joshua I. Schwartz, Associate Professor of Law, (Law Center); Charles S. Tidball, Professor of Computer Medicine, (Medical Center) and Anthony M. Yezer, Associate Professor of Economics, (Columbian College). No nominations were made from the floor, and the entire slate was approved.

(b) On behalf of the Executive Committee, Professor Griffith reported that it had received a non-concurrence which was presently in the phase of preliminary exploration. He noted that the Orientation Breakfast for new faculty members, co-sponsored by the Faculty Senate and the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs, was held January 10th and that 43 new faculty members were in attendance. He reminded the members of the Special Meeting of the Faculty Senate, Friday, January 31st, called by the President at the request of the Executive Committee, for discussion of the Report of the Commission for the Year 2000 by the Faculty Senate Special Committee and Faculty Senate Standing Committees. He asked that members review the summary of statistics prepared by the Special Committee and distributed at today's meeting as part of its Report based on responses from individual faculty members with respect to the Commission's Report. He also reminded members of the Faculty Assembly meeting, Tuesday, January 21st, and of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Ceremony, Monday, January 20th.

7 No Brief Statements were made.

8 Upon motion made and seconded, the meeting was adjourned by Vice President French at 4:59 p.m.

Deferred, April 12, 1985, to the May 3, 1985, Senate meeting

Deferred, May 3, 1985, to Spring 1986

Adopted, as amended, January 17, 1986

EXISTING POLICY

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

August 8, 1977

The University community in order to fulfill its purposes must establish and maintain guidelines of academic behavior. Although all members of the community are expected to exhibit honesty and competence in their academic work, incoming students to all colleges and divisions have a special responsibility to acquaint themselves with, and make use of, all proper procedures for doing research, writing papers and taking examinations.

To insure that such procedures are known, instructors of basic survey courses must provide their students with information sheets setting forth those procedures and giving examples of plagiarism and other acts of academic dishonesty.

Members of the community will, thereafter, be presumed to be familiar with the proper academic procedures and held responsible for applying them. Deliberate failure to act in accordance with such procedures will be considered academic dishonesty. Failure to observe these procedures by reason of ignorance or inadvertence constitutes academic incompetence. Faculty members must decide whether a student's noncompliance is an act of dishonesty or an act of incompetence. Although incompetence may be dealt with in the normal evaluative manner, acts of academic dishonesty are a legal, moral, and intellectual offense against the community and cannot be tolerated.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

INTRODUCTION

The University community in order to fulfill its purposes must encourage the pursuit of academic excellence in an environment which promotes honesty, integrity and fairness. All members of the community are expected to exhibit honesty and competence in their academic work and to share the responsibility to secure and respect general conditions conducive to an atmosphere of academic honesty.

It is the responsibility of University administrators to publicize appropriately the University Policy on Academic Dishonesty. Different schools and divisions may develop supplemental guidelines in conformity with this University policy and the Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities, providing such guidelines are clearly publicized and made available to students and faculty.

It is the responsibility of department chairpersons to see that, if needed, supplemental guidelines for academic competence and honesty appropriate to their disciplines are developed and publicized.

Teachers of basic introductory courses, undergraduate and graduate, should recommend to students that they acquaint themselves with the University Policy on Academic Dishonesty. They must provide their students with a copy of any departmental guidelines developed to complement the Academic Dishonesty policy.

It is the responsibility of all students at the University to read and familiarize themselves with the University Policy on Academic Dishonesty. If the propriety of certain conduct in light of the University community's norm of academic honesty is in doubt, students must seek the advice of faculty.

Members of the academic community are presumed to be familiar with proper the University's academic procedures and held responsible for applying them. Deliberate failure to act in accordance with such procedures will be considered academic dishonesty. Failure to observe these procedures by reason of ignorance or inadvertence constitutes academic incompetence. A faculty member must decide whether to consider a student's noncompliance as an act of dishonesty or an act of incompetence. Although incompetence may be dealt with in the normal evaluative manner, acts of academic dishonesty must be treated with moral and intellectual offenses against the academic community and cannot be tolerated.

Students who feel aggrieved by the apparent inaction of faculty in matters of alleged academic dishonesty may appeal for action to the faculty member's department chairperson or dean.

THIS SECTION
MOVED FROM
THIS PAGE.

All members of the community, students and faculty members alike, have a responsibility to prevent acts of academic dishonesty, or, if they have occurred, to note and act upon them and to keep them from recurring. Some examples of academically dishonest behavior include:

1. Plagiarism.
2. Copying from another student's examination.
3. Submitting work that was prepared in advance for an in-class examination.
4. Representing purchased material as one's own work.

The remainder of this statement aims SOLELY at informing students of their rights and responsibilities with respect to academic dishonesty. The procedures outlined below apply to cases of academic dishonesty only, and not to cases of academic incompetence

DEFINITION

Academic dishonesty is an act of fraud, which may include misrepresentation, deceit, falsification, or trickery of any kind which is done by the student with the purpose, intent or expectation of influencing a grade or other academic evaluation. Academic dishonesty also includes forgery of academic documents, intentionally impeding or damaging the academic work of others, or assisting other students in acts of dishonesty. It is unnecessary and impossible for this policy to anticipate and explicitly define every kind of academic dishonesty; common examples of academically dishonest behavior include:

1. Cheating - intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise; copying from another student's examination; submitting work prepared in advance for an in-class examination; representing material prepared by another as one's own work; violating rules governing administration of examinations.
2. Fabrication - intentional and unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise.
3. Facilitating Academic Dishonesty - intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of academic dishonesty.
4. Plagiarism - intentionally or knowingly representing the words or ideas of another as one's own in any academic exercise; failure to attribute direct quotation, paraphrase, or borrowed facts or information.

All members of the academic community have a responsibility to prevent acts of academic dishonesty or, when they have occurred, to note and act upon them and keep them from recurring. Further, aiding, abetting, conspiring with, or assisting any other person to perform any act of academic dishonesty when the person charged had reason to believe that academic dishonesty was involved may properly be considered academic dishonesty. A more detailed definition of various types of academic dishonesty, where such have been promulgated, can be obtained from the appropriate department or dean's office.

The remainder of this statement aims at informing faculty and students of their rights and responsibilities with respect to academic dishonesty. The procedures outlined below, including sanctions, apply to academic dishonesty only, and shall not apply to cases of academic incompetence.

PROCEDURES

When faculty members discover or have brought to their attention instances of apparent academic dishonesty, they must, upon consultation with their departmental chairperson, act to invoke against the alleged offender one or more of the following sanctions:

- (a) A zero for the work product.
- (b) A grade of "F-Academic Dishonesty" for the course or other academic requirement, the notation, "Academic Dishonesty," to be expunged two years after imposition of the penalty, or upon graduation, whichever occurs first.
- (c) A grade of "F-Academic Dishonesty" for the course or other academic requirement, with the notation remaining on the permanent record.
- (d) Expulsion of the student from the University with the notation of "Academic Dishonesty."

A record of the academic dishonesty offense shall be kept in the office of the Dean in the appropriate school or division.

SANCTIONS

When faculty members discover or have brought to their attention instances of apparent academic dishonesty, they must, upon consultation with their departmental chairpersons or equivalent, act to invoke against the alleged offender one or more of the following sanctions:

- a) Rejection of the work product, with the requirement that the student satisfactorily complete compensatory work. If no work product is involved, a written reprimand shall be issued. In either case, a record of this action shall be retained in the Dean's office until graduation, or for one year following the student's termination of enrollment.
- b) A zero for the work product.
- c) A grade of "F-Academic Dishonesty" for the course or other academic requirement, the notation "Academic Dishonesty" to be expunged upon graduation or two years following the student's termination of enrollment.
- d) A grade of "F-Academic Dishonesty" for the course or other academic requirement, with the notation remaining on the student's permanent record.
- e) Suspension from the University for a period not to exceed one year with a notation of "Academic Dishonesty" remaining on the student's permanent record.
- f) Expulsion of the student from the University with the notation "Academic Dishonesty" remaining on the student's permanent record.

The prior disciplinary record of a student ~~shall~~ may be considered in establishing the appropriate sanction to be imposed. It should not be a factor in the determination of guilt. A record of the academic dishonesty offense shall be kept in the office of the dean in the appropriate school or division.

THIS SECTION DELETED.

EXISTING POLICY

In all cases where a faculty member imposes, or seeks to impose, one or more of the aforementioned sanctions, he must present the student with a completed copy of the attached form, entitled "Charge of Academic Dishonesty," in which he sets forth the nature of the charge(s) and the nature of the sanction(s).

The faculty member shall also send a copy of this form to the Dean of the school in which the student is registered. The case shall be adjudicated in that school. The faculty member shall also inform the student of the availability at the Dean's Office of copies of this "Statement of University Policy on Academic Dishonesty" and of the "Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities."

If the faculty member, the student, and the dean all agree that the charge(s) is accurate and that the sanction(s) is appropriate, the fact of this agreement shall be noted by the signatures of all three parties on the copy of the form which shall be deposited with the Dean; and the sanction shall be imposed.

If any of the parties - the student, the professor, or the dean - believes that the charge(s) is not accurate or that the sanction(s) is not appropriate, the non-concurring party or parties may appeal to the Dean's Council (or its divisional equivalent) and, upon further non-concurrence, to the Board of Trustees, through the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

INITIAL PROCEDURES

In all cases where a faculty member seeks to impose one or more of the aforementioned sanctions, he must consult with his or her department chair. The faculty member will then be responsible for presenting the student with a completed copy of the "Charge of Academic Dishonesty" form in which the nature of the charges as well as the proposed sanction are set forth. This must occur within two weeks of the time that the offense was brought to the faculty member's attention. Upon presentation of the charges the student will also be provided a copy of the current University Policy on Academic Dishonesty and the "Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities." The student is entitled to hear the faculty member's evidence and to speak on his or her own behalf. Based on this meeting, should the faculty member be persuaded that the student is innocent, the charges shall be dropped and all records of the charges destroyed.

If the student agrees that the charge is accurate and that the sanction is appropriate, the fact of this agreement shall be noted by the signatures of both on the Charge form and the sanctions shall be imposed. A copy of the signed form shall be deposited with the dean.

INFORMAL HEARING

If the student believes that the charge is not accurate or that the sanction is not appropriate, the case shall be referred for an informal hearing before the dean, or a representative of the dean, of the school in which the alleged offense occurred. The dean's representative shall be a member of the faculty designated by the dean with the concurrence of the dean's council. Both the student and faculty member shall be present at this informal hearing. At this meeting, the student will again be informed of the charge and the evidence in the case and will be allowed to speak on his or her own behalf. The student may be accompanied by an advisor of his or her own choosing who may advise the student but shall not be permitted to speak on the student's behalf. Both parties may produce witnesses on their behalf and disagree with and/or question any witnesses appearing for the other party. The proceedings shall be tape-recorded in cases where the student may be subject to suspension, expulsion, or a permanent notation of academic dishonesty on his/her permanent record.

At the conclusion of the informal hearing, should the student be determined innocent by both the faculty member and the dean (or the dean's representative) the charge shall be dropped and all records of the case destroyed. Otherwise, within seven (7) days of the conclusion of the informal hearing the dean (or dean's representative) shall issue an opinion in writing setting forth his/her findings of fact, conclusion and the appropriate sanction. If the student and faculty member agree with the opinion, this shall be noted in writing to be filed in the dean's office and the sanction shall be imposed. If either the faculty member or the student disagrees with the opinion he or she must, within ten (10) days, file a written appeal with the Vice President for Academic Affairs requesting a review of the case by the Hearing Committee on Academic Dishonesty. The appeal must specify the points of disagreement and the remedy sought.

HEARING COMMITTEE

The Hearing Committee on Academic Dishonesty shall be composed of a non-voting chair, three faculty members (two of whom shall be from the school in which the alleged offense occurred and at least one of whom shall be from the school in which the charged student is enrolled) and, at the option of the accused student, two students enrolled in the school in which the offense occurred. The Vice President for Academic Affairs shall appoint the chair who shall constitute the Committee from a pool of faculty and students selected by the dean of each school. The Hearing Committee shall be convened within fifteen (15) days of the filing of an appeal.

The Hearing Committee will review the dean's (or the dean's representative's) opinion and all documentary evidence pertinent to the case. It may decide to dispose of the case on the basis of the evidence presented, or may decide to hear new testimony. In the latter instance, the student must be present and will be allowed to disagree with and/or question the testimony. The student may be accompanied by an adviser of his/her choosing who may advise the student but may not speak on the student's behalf. The Hearing Committee may open these proceedings at the request of the student. If the Hearing Committee determines by majority vote that the student is not guilty, all records pertaining to the case will be destroyed. In all other cases, the Hearing Committee shall prepare an opinion summarizing the results of its review, to include a determination of the sanction(s). The opinion of the Hearing Committee ~~shall be final, and~~ will be transmitted to the appropriate dean for the record, and to the student, and the sanction shall be imposed, and shall be final unless appealed to the Board of Trustees within fifteen (15) days.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

If the student or faculty member believes that the charge(s) is/are not accurate or that the sanction(s) is/are not appropriate, the nonconcurring party may request review by the Board of Trustees through the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

NEW.
SECTION
ADDED.

SAFEGUARDS DURING PROCEDURE

Appeals to the Dean's Council or the Board of Trustees shall be conducted in accordance with Section V.B. of the "Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities."

Should the student be found innocent of the charges, all records of the charges (and the proceedings) shall be destroyed.

Should appeal procedures not be completed before the "due date" for the semester grades, the faculty member shall record the grade "I" for the student until the charges have been finally adjudicated. For other academic requirements (e.g. theses, comprehensive examinations, etc.), no sanctions shall go into effect until the completion of all appeals that are to be undertaken.

NEW SECTION
ADDED.

SUPPLEMENTAL GUIDELINES

All departmental chairpersons are held responsible for their faculty members' knowledge of and application of the foregoing statement. Chairpersons are also required to develop and to publicize to their students and faculty a set of departmental guidelines for academic competence and honesty appropriate to their discipline. Different schools and divisions are also free to develop supplemental guidelines in conformity with this University policy.

An Ad Hoc Committee of three Trustees shall be appointed by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees Acting for the full Board in considering and rendering a final decision on an appeal.

SAFEGUARDS DURING PROCEDURE

The reliance upon evidence shall be determined by fundamental principles of fair play and not upon strict rules of evidence or procedure as are customarily applied in courts of law.

TIME LIMITS

While it is not normally expected that the procedural steps set forth herein can and will be taken within the prescribed time limits, failure to do shall not constitute a violation where extenuating circumstances reasonably excuse the delay.

RECORDS OF PROCEEDINGS

The complete records of academic dishonesty proceedings shall be maintained with the student's academic record in the office of the dean of the school in which the student is enrolled. They should be retained in the dean's office until either the student's graduation, or for one or two years (as specified by the sanction) following the termination of the student's enrollment, whichever is first. Following that period, the written proceedings of cases in which any sanction has been recorded on the student's permanent record will be transmitted to the Office of the Registrar to be filed with the student's permanent record; in cases where no sanction has been recorded on the student's permanent record, the records of the proceedings will be destroyed. Written records of academic dishonesty proceedings retained by the University are available to appropriate University officials, prospective employers and other educational institutions, in accordance with university policy and federal regulations.

A RESOLUTION ON A PROPOSED NEW UNIVERSITY SMOKING POLICY (85/7)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE FACULTY SENATE OF THE GEORGE
WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

That the proposed University Smoking Policy be approved with
the following amendments:

- (1) Section III. EXCEPTIONS, Paragraph C. Residence Halls
be amended as follows:

(underlining and dashes indicate amendments)

The Office of Housing and Residence Life attempts to assign students to rooms according to smoking preferences. ~~Therefore,~~ Smoking is permitted in residence hall rooms, if all room residents agree.
However, ~~smokers must be aware of, and make neces-~~
~~sary adjustments to, situations in which smoke may~~
~~have an unfavorable effect on roommates.~~ in the absence of agreement between students sharing a room,
smoking will be prohibited.

- (2) Section V. SIGNS be amended as follows:

(underlining indicates amendments)

It is the intent of this policy statement that smoking will be prohibited in all public areas except those areas where smoking is specifically permitted. Such areas will be selected by the Physical Plant Department in coordination with all department heads concerned and with the Safety
Department, and signs will be installed as appropriate. Areas selected should have proper ventilation and should not create a noise problem adjacent to classrooms from smokers congregated there. Desk top, tent-type signs reading "Thank You for not Smoking" and "Smoking Permitted in this Area" are available from University Stores in the Support Building for a small charge. Departments are encouraged to obtain and use them as appropriate.

The Committee on Administrative Matters
as They Affect the Faculty

November 22, 1985

Adopted January 17, 1986

PROPOSED POLICY

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

SMOKING POLICY

I. GENERAL STATEMENT

Recognizing that the inhalation of tobacco smoke is hazardous to health, the University is taking positive steps toward providing a more smoke-free environment for students, faculty, and staff.

This policy will become effective on January 1, 1986. The University will sponsor on-going programs which are intended to foster an understanding of the policy and to encourage compliance.

The medical staff have adopted policies governing smoking in the University hospital. These policies are incorporated herein by reference.

II. GENERAL POLICY

Smoking is prohibited in all University buildings and facilities except in areas which are specifically designated as "Smoking Permitted." Other exceptions to this general policy are enumerated in Section III.

III. EXCEPTIONS

A. Investment Properties are not covered by this policy.

B. Offices

Private offices - Smoking may be permitted in private offices. Nonetheless, smokers must be aware of, and make necessary adjustments to, situations in which their smoking may have an adverse effect on persons occupying adjacent areas or on visiting non-smokers.

Shared offices - In offices shared by two or more individuals, any of whom are non-smokers, smoking is prohibited unless the non-smokers specifically agree to permit smoking.

C. Residence Halls - The Office of Housing and Residence Life attempts to assign students to rooms according to smoking preferences. Therefore, smoking is permitted in residence hall rooms. However, smokers must be aware of, and make necessary adjustments to, situations in which smoke may have an unfavorable effect on roommates.

IV. APPLICABILITY

All George Washington University faculty, staff, students, and visitors are required to comply with this policy. Visitors will be informed of this policy by University personnel.

V. SIGNS

It is the intent of this policy statement that smoking will be prohibited in all public areas except those areas where smoking is specifically permitted. Such areas will be selected by the Physical Plant Department in coordination with the Safety Department, and signs will be installed as appropriate.

Desk top, tent type signs reading "Thank you for not Smoking" and "Smoking Permitted in this Area" are available from University stores in the Support Building for a small charge. Departments are encouraged to obtain and use them as appropriate.

VI. RESPONSIBILITY

The Provost has overall responsibility for implementing this policy. Officers, chairs, and managers are responsible for implementing this policy in their units and shall inform students, faculty, and administrative and staff employees under their jurisdictions of the provisions of this policy by making copies available and by other means.

Questions about this policy or its implementation may be referred to the Provost, the appropriate Vice President, the Dean for Administrative Affairs of the Medical Center, the Director of Personnel or Directors of Safety.

A RESOLUTION TO ESTABLISH A SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON.
CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY (85/10)

WHEREAS, to sustain support for research activity in an era of shrinking federal and foundation monies for research, and to share in new opportunities for profitable development of research discoveries, faculty may in the near future be led increasingly to consider contractual relationships of a new type with business firms; and

WHEREAS, the Faculty Senate of the Medical Center has requested that the Faculty Senate of the University urge the President's office to establish a university policy on conflict of interest in research; and

WHEREAS, the Vice President for Academic Affairs has requested that the Faculty Senate review a proposed "University Statement on Faculty Conflict of Interest" drafted by an appointed committee chaired by Dean Bowles of the Medical Center; and

WHEREAS, the Faculty Senate's standing committees on Research and on Professional Ethics and Academic Freedom, which reviewed this draft statement at the request of the Executive Committee, have recommended the establishment of a special committee to deal with this complex problem; THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE FACULTY SENATE OF THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

That a Special Committee be and by this Resolution is established, with the following structure and charge:

1. The Special Committee on Conflict of Interest Policy shall be nominated by the Executive Committee and elected by the Senate, with such ex officio members as the President may appoint; and

2. The charge shall be:

- (1) To review the proposed "University Statement on Faculty Conflict of Interest" submitted by the Bowles Committee; and

- (2) To consider certain objections which have been raised by administrative officers to the potential for inadequate protection of the interests of the general University community in the decentralized procedures suggested therein for resolving conflict of interest situations; and

Resolution 85/10 cont'd:

(3) To examine parallel efforts to establish conflict of interest policies in other research universities and organizations; and

(4) To report to the Faculty Senate in timely fashion its recommendations regarding a University policy on conflict of interest.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

August 8, 1977

The University community in order to fulfill its purposes must establish and maintain guidelines of academic behavior. Although all members of the community are expected to exhibit honesty and competence in their academic work, incoming students to all colleges and divisions have a special responsibility to acquaint themselves with, and make use of, all proper procedures for doing research, writing papers and taking examinations.

To insure that such procedures are known, instructors of basic survey courses must provide their students with information sheets setting forth those procedures and giving examples of plagiarism and other acts of academic dishonesty.

Members of the community will, thereafter, be presumed to be familiar with the proper academic procedures and held responsible for applying them. Deliberate failure to act in accordance with such procedures will be considered academic dishonesty. Failure to observe these procedures by reason of ignorance or inadvertence constitutes academic incompetence. Faculty members must decide whether a student's noncompliance is an act of dishonesty or an act of incompetence. Although incompetence may be dealt with in the normal evaluative manner, acts of academic dishonesty are a legal, moral, and intellectual offense against the community and cannot be tolerated.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

INTRODUCTION

The University community in order to fulfill its purposes must encourage the pursuit of academic excellence in an environment which promotes honesty, integrity and fairness. All members of the community are expected to exhibit honesty and competence in their academic work and to share the responsibility to secure and respect general conditions conducive to an atmosphere of academic honesty.

It is the responsibility of University administrators to publicize appropriately the University Policy on Academic Dishonesty. Different schools and divisions may develop supplemental guidelines in conformity with this University policy and the Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities, providing such guidelines are clearly publicized and made available to students and faculty.

It is the responsibility of department chairpersons to see that, if needed, supplemental guidelines for academic competence and honesty appropriate to their disciplines are developed and publicized.

Teachers of basic introductory courses, undergraduate and graduate, should recommend to students that they acquaint themselves with the University Policy on Academic Dishonesty. They must provide their students with a copy of any departmental guidelines developed to complement the Academic Dishonesty policy.

It is the responsibility of all students at the University to read and familiarize themselves with the University Policy on Academic Dishonesty. If the propriety of certain conduct in light of the University community's norm of academic honesty is in doubt, students must seek the advice of faculty.

Members of the academic community are presumed to be familiar with proper academic procedures and held responsible for applying them. Deliberate failure to act in accordance with such procedures will be considered academic dishonesty. Failure to observe these procedures by reason of ignorance or inadvertence constitutes academic incompetence. A faculty member must decide whether to consider a student's noncompliance as an act of dishonesty or an act of incompetence. Although incompetence may be dealt with in the normal evaluative manner, acts of academic dishonesty must be treated as moral and intellectual offenses against the academic community and cannot be tolerated.

All members of the community, students and faculty members alike, have a responsibility to prevent acts of academic dishonesty, or, if they have occurred, to note and act upon them and to keep them from recurring. Some examples of academically dishonest behavior include:

1. Plagiarism.
2. Copying from another student's examination.
3. Submitting work that was prepared in advance for an in-class examination.
4. Representing purchased material as one's own work.

The remainder of this statement aims SOLELY at informing students of their rights and responsibilities with respect to academic dishonesty. The procedures outlined below apply to cases of academic dishonesty only, and not to cases of academic incompetence

DEFINITION

Academic dishonesty is an act of fraud, which may include misrepresentation, deceit, falsification, or trickery of any kind which is done by the student with the purpose, intent or expectation of influencing a grade or other academic evaluation. Academic dishonesty also includes forgery of academic documents, intentionally impeding or damaging the academic work of others, or assisting other students in acts of dishonesty. It is unnecessary and impossible for this policy to anticipate and explicitly define every kind of academic dishonesty; common examples of academically dishonest behavior include:

1. Cheating - intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise; copying from another student's examination; submitting work prepared in advance for an in-class examination; representing material prepared by another as one's own work; violating rules governing administration of examinations.
2. Fabrication - intentional and unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise.
3. Facilitating Academic Dishonesty - intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of academic dishonesty.
4. Plagiarism - intentionally or knowingly representing the words or ideas of another as one's own in any academic exercise; failure to attribute direct quotation, paraphrase, or borrowed facts or information.

All members of the academic community have a responsibility to prevent acts of academic dishonesty or, when they have occurred, to note and act upon them and keep them from recurring. Further, aiding, abetting, conspiring with, or assisting any other person to perform any act of academic dishonesty when the person charged had reason to believe that academic dishonesty was involved may properly be considered academic dishonesty. A more detailed definition of various types of academic dishonesty, where such have been promulgated, can be obtained from the appropriate department or dean's office.

The remainder of this statement aims at informing faculty and students of their rights and responsibilities with respect to academic dishonesty. The procedures outlined below, including sanctions, apply to academic dishonesty only, and shall not apply to cases of academic incompetence.

PROCEDURES

When faculty members discover or have brought to their attention instances of apparent academic dishonesty, they must, upon consultation with their departmental chairperson, act to invoke against the alleged offender one or more of the following sanctions:

- (a) A zero for the work product.
- (b) A grade of "F-Academic Dishonesty" for the course or other academic requirement, the notation, "Academic Dishonesty," to be expunged two years after imposition of the penalty, or upon graduation, whichever occurs first.
- (c) A grade of "F-Academic Dishonesty" for the course or other academic requirement, with the notation remaining on the permanent record.
- (d) Expulsion of the student from the University with the notation of "Academic Dishonesty."

A record of the academic dishonesty offense shall be kept in the office of the Dean in the appropriate school or division.

SANCTIONS

When faculty members discover or have brought to their attention instances of apparent academic dishonesty, they must, upon consultation with their departmental chairpersons act to invoke against the alleged offender one or more of the following sanctions:

- a) Rejection of the work product, with the requirement that the student satisfactorily complete compensatory work. If no work product is involved, a written reprimand shall be issued. In either case, a record of this action shall be retained in the Dean's office until graduation, or for one year following the student's termination of enrollment.
- b) A zero for the work product.
- c) A grade of "F-Academic Dishonesty" for the course or other academic requirement, the notation "Academic Dishonesty" to be expunged upon graduation or two years following the student's termination of enrollment.
- d) A grade of "F-Academic Dishonesty" for the course or other academic requirement, with the notation remaining on the student's permanent record.
- e) Suspension from the University for a period not to exceed one year with a notation of "Academic Dishonesty" remaining on the student's permanent record.
- f) Expulsion of the student from the University with the notation "Academic Dishonesty" remaining on the student's permanent record.

The prior disciplinary record of a student shall be considered in establishing the appropriate sanction to be imposed. It should not be factor in the determination of guilt. A record of the academic dishonesty offense shall be kept in the office of the dean in the appropriate school or division.

Failure of faculty to initiate action in cases of apparent academic dishonesty is considered dereliction of professional responsibility and is subject to actions or sanctions of the appropriate school or college.

Students who feel aggrieved by the apparent inaction of faculty in matters of alleged academic dishonesty may appeal for action to the faculty member's department chairperson or dean.

In all cases where a faculty member imposes, or seeks to impose, one or more of the aforementioned sanctions, he must present the student with a completed copy of the attached form, entitled "Charge of Academic Dishonesty," in which he sets forth the nature of the charge(s) and the nature of the sanction(s).

The faculty member shall also send a copy of this form to the Dean of the school in which the student is registered. The case shall be adjudicated in that school. The faculty member shall also inform the student of the availability at the Dean's Office of copies of this "Statement of University Policy on Academic Dishonesty" and of the "Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities."

If the faculty member, the student, and the dean all agree that the charge(s) is accurate and that the sanction(s) is appropriate, the fact of this agreement shall be noted by the signatures of all three parties on the copy of the form which shall be deposited with the Dean; and the sanction shall be imposed.

If any of the parties - the student, the professor, or the dean - believes that the charge(s) is not accurate or that the sanction(s) is not appropriate, the non-concurring party or parties may appeal to the Dean's Council (or its divisional equivalent) and, upon further non-concurrence, to the Board of Trustees, through the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

INITIAL PROCEDURES

In all cases where a faculty member seeks to impose one or more of the aforementioned sanctions, he must consult with his or her department chair. The faculty member will then be responsible for presenting the student with a completed copy of the "Charge of Academic Dishonesty" form in which the nature of the charges as well as the proposed sanction are set forth. This must occur within two weeks of the time that the offense was brought to the faculty member's attention. Upon presentation of the charges the student will also be provided a copy of the current University Policy on Academic Dishonesty and the "Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities." The student is entitled to hear the faculty member's evidence and to speak on his or her own behalf. Based on this meeting, should the faculty member be persuaded that the student is innocent, the charges shall be dropped and all records of the charges destroyed.

If the student agrees that the charge is accurate and that the sanction is appropriate, the fact of this agreement shall be noted by the signatures of both on the Charge form and the sanctions shall be imposed. A copy of the signed form shall be deposited with the dean.

INFORMAL HEARING

If the student believes that the charge is not accurate or that the sanction is not appropriate, the case shall be referred for an informal hearing before the dean, or a representative of the dean, of the school in which the alleged offense occurred. The dean's representative shall be a member of the faculty designated by the dean with the concurrence of the dean's council. Both the student and faculty member shall be present at this informal hearing. At this meeting, the student will again be informed of the charge and the evidence in the case and will be allowed to speak on his or her own behalf. The student may be accompanied by an advisor of his or her own choosing who may advise the student but shall not be permitted to speak on the student's behalf. Both parties may produce witnesses on their behalf and disagree with and/or question any witnesses appearing for the other party. The proceedings shall be tape-recorded in cases where the student may be subject to suspension, expulsion, or a permanent notation of academic dishonesty on his/her permanent record.

At the conclusion of the informal hearing, should the student be determined innocent by both the faculty member and the dean (or the dean's representative), the charge shall be dropped and all records of the case destroyed. Otherwise, within seven (7) days of the conclusion of the informal hearing the dean (or dean's representative) shall issue an opinion in writing setting forth his/her findings of fact, conclusion and the appropriate sanction. If the student and faculty member agree with the opinion, this shall be noted in writing to be filed in the dean's office and the sanction shall be imposed. If either the faculty member or the student disagrees with the opinion he or she must, within ten (10) days, file a written appeal with the Vice President for Academic Affairs requesting a review of the case by the Hearing Committee on Academic Dishonesty. The appeal must specify the points of disagreement and the remedy sought.

HEARING COMMITTEE

The Hearing Committee on Academic Dishonesty shall be composed of a non-voting chair, three faculty members (two of whom shall be from the school in which the alleged offense occurred and at least one of whom shall be from the school in which the charged student is enrolled) and, at the option of the accused student, two students enrolled in the school in which the offense occurred. The Vice President for Academic Affairs shall appoint the chair who shall constitute the Committee from a pool of faculty and students selected by the dean of each school. The Hearing Committee shall be convened within fifteen (15) days of the filing of an appeal.

The Hearing Committee will review the dean's (or the dean's representative's) opinion and all documentary evidence pertinent to the case. It may decide to dispose of the case on the basis of the evidence presented, or may decide to hear new testimony. In the latter instance, the student must be present and will be allowed to disagree with and/or question the testimony. The student may be accompanied by an adviser of his/her choosing who may advise the student but may not speak on the student's behalf. The Hearing Committee may open these proceedings at the request of the student. If the Hearing Committee determines by majority vote that the student is not guilty, all records pertaining to the case will be destroyed. In all other cases, the Hearing Committee shall prepare an opinion summarizing the results of its review, to include a determination of the sanction(s). The opinion of the Hearing Committee shall be final, and will be transmitted to the appropriate dean for the record, and to the student, and the sanction shall be imposed.

SAFEGUARDS DURING PROCEDURE

Appeals to the Dean's Council or the Board of Trustees shall be conducted in accordance with Section V.B. of the "Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities."

Should the student be found innocent of the charges, all records of the charges (and the proceedings) shall be destroyed.

Should appeal procedures not be completed before the "due date" for the semester grades, the faculty member shall record the grade "I" for the student until the charges have been finally adjudicated. For other academic requirements (e.g. theses, comprehensive examinations, etc.), no sanctions shall go into effect until the completion of all appeals that are to be undertaken.

SUPPLEMENTAL GUIDELINES

All departmental chairpersons are held responsible for their faculty members' knowledge of and application of the foregoing statement. Chairpersons are also required to develop and to publicize to their students and faculty a set of departmental guidelines for academic competence and honesty appropriate to their discipline. Different schools and divisions are also free to develop supplemental guidelines in conformity with this University policy.

An Ad Hoc Committee of three Trustees shall be appointed by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees Acting for the full Board in considering and rendering a final decision on an appeal.

SAFEGUARDS DURING PROCEDURE

The reliance upon evidence shall be determined by fundamental principles of fair play and not upon strict rules of evidence or procedure as are customarily applied in courts of law.

Should appeal procedures not be completed before the "due date" for the semester grades, the faculty member shall record the grade "I" for the student until the charges have been finally adjudicated. For other academic requirements (e.g. theses, comprehensive examinations, etc.), no sanctions shall go into effect until the completion of all appeals that are to be undertaken.

RECORDS OF PROCEEDINGS

The complete records of academic dishonesty proceedings shall be maintained with the student's academic record in the office of the dean of the school in which the student is enrolled. They should be retained in the dean's office until either the student's graduation, or for one or two years (as specified by the sanction) following the termination of the student's enrollment, whichever is first. Following that period, the written proceedings of cases in which any sanction has been recorded on the student's permanent record will be transmitted to the Office of the Registrar to be filed with the student's permanent record; in cases where no sanction has been recorded on the student's permanent record, the records of the proceedings will be destroyed. Written records of academic dishonesty proceedings retained by the University are available to appropriate University officials, prospective employers and other educational institutions, in accordance with university policy and federal regulations.

A RESOLUTION ON A PROPOSED NEW UNIVERSITY SMOKING POLICY (85/7)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE FACULTY SENATE OF THE GEORGE
WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

That the proposed University Smoking Policy be approved with
the following amendments:

- (1) Section III. EXCEPTIONS, Paragraph C. Residence Halls
be amended as follows:

(underlining and dashes indicate amendments)

The Office of Housing and Residence Life attempts to assign students to rooms according to smoking preferences. Therefore, Smoking is permitted in residence hall rooms, if all room residents agree.
~~However, smokers must be aware of, and make neces-~~
~~sary adjustments to, situations in which smoke may~~
~~have an unfavorable effect on roommates.~~ in the absence of agreement between students sharing a room,
smoking will be prohibited.

- (2) Section V. SIGNS be amended as follows:

(underlining indicates amendments)

It is the intent of this policy statement that smoking will be prohibited in all public areas
except those areas where smoking is specifically permitted. Such areas will be selected by the Physical Plant Department in coordination with all department heads concerned and with the Safety
Department, and signs will be installed as approprate. Areas selected should have proper ventilation and should not create a noise problem adjacent to classrooms from smokers congregated
there. Desk top, tent-type signs reading "Thank You for not Smoking" and "Smoking Permitted in this Area" are available from University Stores in the Support Building for a small charge. Departments are encouraged to obtain and use them as appropriate.

The Committee on Administrative Matters
as They Affect the Faculty

November 22, 1985

PROPOSED POLICY

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

SMOKING POLICY

I. GENERAL STATEMENT

Recognizing that the inhalation of tobacco smoke is hazardous to health, the University is taking positive steps toward providing a more smoke-free environment for students, faculty, and staff.

This policy will become effective on January 1, 1986. The University will sponsor on-going programs which are intended to foster an understanding of the policy and to encourage compliance.

The medical staff have adopted policies governing smoking in the University hospital. These policies are incorporated herein by reference.

II. GENERAL POLICY

Smoking is prohibited in all University buildings and facilities except in areas which are specifically designated as "Smoking Permitted." Other exceptions to this general policy are enumerated in Section III.

III. EXCEPTIONS

A. Investment Properties are not covered by this policy.

B. Offices

Private offices - Smoking may be permitted in private offices. Nonetheless, smokers must be aware of, and make necessary adjustments to, situations in which their smoking may have an adverse effect on persons occupying adjacent areas or on visiting non-smokers.

Shared offices - In offices shared by two or more individuals, any of whom are non-smokers, smoking is prohibited unless the non-smokers specifically agree to permit smoking.

C. Residence Halls - The Office of Housing and Residence Life attempts to assign students to rooms according to smoking preferences. Therefore, smoking is permitted in residence hall rooms. However, smokers must be aware of, and make necessary adjustments to, situations in which smoke may have an unfavorable effect on roommates.

IV. APPLICABILITY

All George Washington University faculty, staff, students, and visitors are required to comply with this policy. Visitors will be informed of this policy by University personnel.

V. SIGNS

It is the intent of this policy statement that smoking will be prohibited in all public areas except those areas where smoking is specifically permitted. Such areas will be selected by the Physical Plant Department in coordination with the Safety Department, and signs will be installed as appropriate. Desk top, tent type signs reading "Thank you for not Smoking" and "Smoking Permitted in this Area" are available from University stores in the Support Building for a small charge. Departments are encouraged to obtain and use them as appropriate.

VI. RESPONSIBILITY

The Provost has overall responsibility for implementing this policy. Officers, chairs, and managers are responsible for implementing this policy in their units and shall inform students, faculty, and administrative and staff employees under their jurisdictions of the provisions of this policy by making copies available and by other means.

Questions about this policy or its implementation may be referred to the Provost, the appropriate Vice President, the Dean for Administrative Affairs of the Medical Center, the Director of Personnel or Directors of Safety.

A RESOLUTION TO AMEND ARTICLE X AND PROCEDURES FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF ARTICLE X, PARAGRAPH E, OF
THE FACULTY CODE (85/8)

WHEREAS, the University Administration has taken exception to Senate Resolutions 84/4 and 84/5, both of which proposed amendments to Article X of the Faculty Code intended:

- (1) "to clarify the language of the Faculty Code as to what violations of rights and responsibilities may give rise to grievances," and
- (2) "to provide an alternative method of dispute resolution by arbitration;" and

WHEREAS, the Committee on Professional Ethics and Academic Freedom has considered the Administration's objections and suggestions for modification and/or deletion of language contained in Resolutions 84/4 and 84/5;
THEREFORE

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE FACULTY SENATE OF THE GEORGE
WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

That Article X and Procedures for Implementation of Article X, Paragraph E, of the Faculty Code, as amended by Senate Resolutions 84/4 and 84/5, be further amended as follows:

(Note: The earlier amended language appears in the right-hand column; the further amendments proposed by the Professional Ethics and Academic Freedom Committee appear in the left-hand column.)

FACULTY CODE

X. RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES AND RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES
UNDER THIS CODEA. Rights and Privileges Under This Code

delete

The rights, privileges, and responsibilities of a faculty member conferred by this Code ~~or by governing principles of law~~ shall be carefully safeguarded in accordance with the highest accepted principles, practices, and procedures of the academic community. An alleged infringement of such rights or privileges or an alleged violation of such responsibilities ~~or a charge of unfair or discriminatory treatment based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or other considerations prohibited by law with regard to conditions of employment~~, shall first be considered by the faculty member or members concerned, or by appropriate representatives of the faculty, in cooperation with the responsible administrative officers. If such consideration does not lead to an adjustment satisfactory to the parties involved, the procedures for the implementation of this Article shall be fully utilized.

B. Grievances

To maintain a grievance, the complaining party must allege a violation of professional rights or privileges concerning academic freedom, tenure, promotion, reappointment, dismissal, or sabbatical or other leave, arising from:

- 1) acts of discrimination prohibited by Federal or local law;
- 2) failure to follow the Faculty Code and Handbook and other rules, regulations and procedures established by the University;
- 3) arbitrary and capricious University actions; or arbitrary and capricious applications of Federal or local statutes and regulations; or
- 4) University action motivated by prejudicial malice or retaliation for exercise of Code-protected rights.

A. Grievable or Arbitrable Issues1. Grievances

To maintain a grievance, the complaining party must allege either:

- a) a violation of professional rights or privileges concerning such matters as academic freedom, tenure, promotion, reappointment, dismissal, or sabbatical or other leave, such as a might arise from
 - 1) violation of law;
 - 2) unfair procedure or failure to follow established procedures;
 - 3) University action motivated by prejudicial malice or retaliation for exercise of protected rights; or
 - 4) University action without a reasoned basis in fact or University records;
- or b) serious misconduct by a faculty member or significant neglect of a faculty member's responsibilities, in which case a complaint may be brought by regular active status faculty.

delete

2. Arbitration

To maintain an arbitrable complaint over administrative actions or practices, the complaining party must allege a substantial injury affecting professional status or activities, such as teaching assignments, salary, assignment of office space or other support of professional activities. The complaint must have a basis in contract, or academic tradition, or local custom.

3. Jurisdiction in Mixed Complaints

If a grievance is properly alleged, the Dispute Resolution Committee shall have jurisdiction over all related administrative matters that would otherwise be resolved by arbitration.

3. Formal Proceedings

a) Commencement of Proceedings

1) If the preliminary proceedings do not result in a mutually satisfactory resolution of the dispute, any party to the dispute may commence formal proceedings by means of a complaint addressed to the Chairman of the Grievance Dispute Resolution Committee, with copies sent to the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate and the other party or parties.

2) The complaint shall set forth with particularity the nature of the dispute, specifying the rights or responsibilities under the Faculty Code alleged to have been violated, ~~or the substantial injury allegedly inflicted~~, the specific act or acts alleged to constitute the violation, ~~or to have inflicted the injury~~, the identity of the remedy sought, and the reasons alleged to justify the remedy. No grievance or arbitration may be maintained on the basis of error which did not affect the substantial rights of the complainant.

3) Within twenty calendar days of the receipt of the complaint, the other party or parties to the dispute shall reply in writing, sending copies of the reply to the Chairman of the Grievance Dispute Resolution Committee, the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate, and the complaining party or parties. -4) The reply shall set forth with particularity the position of the replying party or parties with respect to each allegation of the complaint.

Any party may make one preemptory challenge to the arbitrator appointed. Any party may also challenge for cause the arbitrator appointed, in which case the Dispute Resolution Committee shall review the challenge, and if it is found justified, the Chairman shall appoint another arbitrator.

2) The Arbitrator shall request expeditiously that the parties concerned submit documents and other information enabling the arbitrator to determine that an arbitrable dispute exists. This initial activity may include interviewing the parties. If the arbitrator finds that the dispute is not an arbitrable one under Article X.B.2. of the Code, he shall return the dispute to the Dispute Resolution Committee for disposition. Otherwise a time for hearing shall be set as soon as all parties can appear.

3) The arbitration hearing is less formal than that for resolving grievances, and emphasis shall be on a complete and fair presentation of the issues. The parties shall have access to all documents submitted to the arbitrator, except documents pertaining to individual faculty salaries. The arbitrator may question witnesses and otherwise assist the parties to present the information needed to make an informed decision. Each party may make a closing statement after all testimony has been presented.

A RESOLUTION TO AMEND ARTICLE III OF THE FACULTY CODE (85/9)

Whereas, the University Administration has disallowed an amendment to Article X of the Faculty Code that would have permitted faculty to maintain a grievance by alleging a colleague's serious misconduct or significant neglect of responsibility, and to bring a complaint thereunder to arbitration; and

Whereas, both tradition and current practice suggest that University faculty, like the members of other professions, be held to self-imposed standards of conduct, therefore:

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE FACULTY SENATE OF THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

That the following statement of professional responsibility be inserted (1) as a new Section B under Article III of the Faculty Code, with appropriate re-lettering of the Sections that follow, and (2) on page 20 of the most recent edition of the Faculty Handbook:

Members of the faculty have a duty to notify the appropriate administrative officers of the University of their knowledge of any serious faculty misconduct as a member of the faculty or significant neglect of faculty responsibilities. Although such notification should normally be made to the department chair or to the dean, a member of the faculty may also bring such information about misconduct or neglect to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

A RESOLUTION TO ESTABLISH A SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON
CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY (85/10)

WHEREAS, to sustain support for research activity in an era of shrinking federal and foundation monies for research, and to share in new opportunities for profitable development of research discoveries, faculty may in the near future be led increasingly to consider contractual relationships of a new type with business firms; and

WHEREAS, the Faculty Senate of the Medical Center has requested that the Faculty Senate of the University urge the President's office to establish a university policy on conflict of interest in research; and

WHEREAS, the Vice President for Academic Affairs has requested that the Faculty Senate review a proposed "University Statement on Faculty Conflict of Interest" drafted by an appointed committee chaired by Dean Bowles of the Medical Center; and

WHEREAS, the Faculty Senate's standing committees on Research and on Professional Ethics and Academic Freedom, which reviewed this draft statement at the request of the Executive Committee, have recommended the establishment of a special committee to deal with this complex problem; THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE FACULTY SENATE OF THE GEORGE
WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

That a Special Committee be and by this Resolution is established, with the following structure and charge:

1. The Special Committee on Conflict of Interest Policy shall be nominated by the Executive Committee and elected by the Senate, with such ex officio members as the President may appoint; and
2. The charge shall be:
 - (1) To review the proposed "University Statement on Faculty Conflict of Interest" submitted by the Bowles Committee; and
 - (2) To consider certain objections which have been raised by administrative officers to the potential for inadequate protection of the interests of the general University community in the decentralized procedures suggested therein for resolving conflict of interest situations; and

Resolution 85/10 cont'd:

(3) To examine parallel efforts to establish conflict of interest policies in other research universities and organizations; and

(4) To report to the Faculty Senate in timely fashion its recommendations regarding a University policy on conflict of interest.
